

You are warmly invited to a dialogue on:

Community Trustbuilding – What does it take? What do we need?

Please join us in a conversation to explore our journey together as Australians. Acknowledging the price paid by Indigenous brothers and sisters, we are privileged to live in this beautiful country. We will welcome Susan Moylan-Coombs, Indigenous broadcaster and community leader from Sydney, who will share her vision for the future, including the truth-telling and healing journey that will help us get there.

We will look at what it takes to resolve conflicts between people, whether based on religion, culture or anything else. An emphatic example of trustbuilding between Muslims and Christians will be seen with excerpts from the award-winning film from Nigeria, The Imam and the Pastor, and its sequel An African Answer.

Come and join us on this journey of the healing we all still need and explore where we go from here.

Susan at Asia Plateau, India, 2019

Nora Amath

Amiel Nubaha

Pastor James & Imam Ashefa

Darryl Lingwoodock

Saturday 31 August at 4:00pm

You are warmly welcome to a facilitated dialogue with Susan and panel members:
Nora Amath, Islamic Women's Association and Amiel Nubaha, President Rwandan Assoc. Qld.

Venue: Multi-Faith Centre (N35), Griffith University Nathan Campus, 170 Kessels Road (off Ring Road), Nathan

For information contact Barbara Lawler: Phone 043858 9776

Initiatives of Change
Australia

Brisbane Multicultural Arts Centre

Islamic Womens Assoc.Aus

Building trust across the world's divides